INTRODUCTION

The following history of the Myers family of Jeddore was prepared to provide background information which could assist the interpretation program at the Fisherman's Life Museum. The history was compiled from public records, church records, cemeteries, and from a conversation I had a number of years ago with Mrs. Clyde Siteman. The information is nowhere near complete. I have not had the time or the knowledge to include present generations, and so the information is limited to what is publicly available.

I have used a system which I prefer, but which is not necessarily genealogically correct. I have given everyone a number, starting with the first in the area, and then followed through each male line as far as possible. Thus all the descendants of Andrew (2) are listed before the descendants of John Henry (3), etc. The list of names in brackets indicates lieage, and the little number above indicates generation. In some cases, I could only guess, so, for example, #75 John B. Myers, born about 1884, was the son of John, grandson of Henry, maybe the great-grandson of Andrew, and great-great-grandson of the first Andrew.

THE MYERS FAMILY OF JEDDORE

1. Andrew Myers married Mary . Came as a Loyalist to Ship Harbour in the 1780s from the 96th District, South Carolina. Did not receive a formal land grant.

children of Andrew and Mary:

2. Andrew
3. John Henry
4. William

Other Myers names from this period include Jacob, a baker, of Halifax who was a suretie for the marriage bond of George Shelnut, widower, of Ship Harbour, July 14, 1819; Catherine Myers, married Henry Falkirk, Nov. 25, 1813, marriage bond signed by John and Henry Myers, both of Jeddore.

2. Andrew<sup>2</sup>(Andrew<sup>1</sup>) married after 1832, Eliza Webber, daughter of Peter (d. 1832) and Elizabeth (Merryweather). The will of Peter Webber of Egmont Harbour in Jeddore refers to his daughter Eliza or Elizabeth as "who pleased God to inflict", so perhaps she was disabled in some way. Andrew and his brother William married sisters.

children of Andrew and Eliza:

5. Elizabeth, born c. 1835, married twice, first Jamieson, second her cousin James H. Myers (#145)

I can't be certain about any other children of Andrew and Eliza, however there are a number of Myers in Jeddore who were of this generation. As I know nothing of their ancestry, I am guessing that they might fit in here. For example, it is logical for Andrew to have a son named Peter for his wife's father (who died in 1832).

6. Peter

(This info came from Mrs. Siteman: actually the marriage bond states that John Henry Myers of Jeddore, farmer, bachelor, married Leticea Mitchell, spinster Oct. 29, 1814, Colin Mitchell also signed the bond.) John Henry Myers of Jeddore died intestate in November 1859.  132. Annie M. born c. 1879, married Joshua Baker, farmer, son of John and Elizabeth, Jan. 8, 1898

 136. Eliza Lilly Jan. 9, 1883 (?) "Lidee" married Ira Baker, fisherman of Jeddore, son of Zacharius and Cecilia, January 7, 1907, just before her 23rd birthday.
 137. Leonard William Aug. 19, 1887
 138. Amos Guy June 30, 1892

131. James A.<sup>6</sup> (Archibald<sup>4</sup>, Alexander<sup>3</sup>, John Henry<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup>) farmer, married (1) Jobina D. Day, Jan. 20, 1898. They were both 21. James A. married (2) Mary A. Cox, a 41 year-old widow at Myers Point, March 18, 1914. In the marriage register his occupation is "cook".

children of John W. and Elizabeth A.:

139. Lowry William bapt. Jan 25, 1883 - Bite Myers - Fisher
 140. Alonzo Welsford, bapt. same day
 141. Lena Myrtle bapt. Aug. 11, 1886

4. William<sup>2</sup> (Andrew<sup>1</sup>) married December 24, 1824, Mary Webber, daughter of Peter (d. 1832) and Elizabeth (Merryweather). William and his brother Andrew both married sisters. This William is believed to be the first Myers at Oyster Ponds. It is also possible and logical for William to have had a son Peter, named for his father-in-law who died in 1832. This is only a guess. Peter Webber left an interesting bequest to Mary in his will: "I also give and bequeath to my beloved daughter mary Myers the cast iron stove and funnell which now stands in the house I occupy..." (Feb. 20, 1832) Did Mary ever bring this stove to Oyster Pond?

A problem I have yet to straighten out concerns a gravestone at Jeddore for Isabella Sarah Myers, died 1884 aged 73, and William Myers, died 1880 aged 70. This William was a miller, and his will mentions his son Peter, his daughter Isabella Smith, and his late daughter Susan Mitchell. As Peter Myers (#6 above) had a daughter, Isabella S., born c. 1859, it is possible that this Peter was the son of William, and not of Andrew. Or did this William represent another Myers family altogether?

children of William and Mary Myers:

143. Elizabeth, born c. 1827, d. Aug 15, 1864 at Jeddore of dyptheria, aged 37. Her father, William, a farmer, survived her.

144. Peter born c. 1830

145. James H., born c. 1835

146. Jacob Thomas, born c. 1841

It is possible that Mary died in this period, and that William remarried, for the marriage record of the next son mentions Elizabeth.
