

Contributors

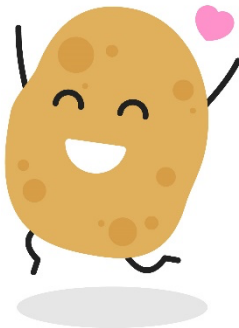

Katie Kehoe

Katie (she/her) is a Master of Library and Information Studies student. She enjoys scrapbooking, reading, and Disney movies. She really wishes she had a dog to take pictures of. Katie is loving learning more about children's and young adult literature and can't wait to make a career out of it.

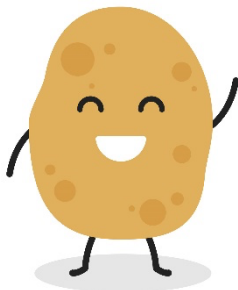

Cassandra Larose

Cassandra (she/her) is a Master of Library and Information Studies student and staff member at the Dalhousie Libraries. She enjoys reading, baking, cooking, and fermenting (with mixed results), as well as showing people pictures of her cats unprompted. Cassandra is passionate about helping others and working with other information professionals to serve her community.

Liana Nand

Liana Nand (she/her) is a Master of Library and Information Studies student. She enjoys going to the market on Saturday mornings, coffee, long walks, and watching cheesy movies accompanied by a big bowl of popcorn. Liana is passionate about public librarianship and has experience in children's programming and outreach services. She hopes to continue working in a public library environment following her graduation.

Katheen Pond

Kathleen (she/her) is a Master of Library and Information Studies student. She enjoys reading, crafting, and watching Marvel movies. She has two cats and a puppy, all of whom are occasionally photogenic. Kathleen is enthusiastic about working with young people in libraries and hopes to make a career out of it, though she also would enjoy working in archives if the opportunity presented itself.

