

About the Contributors

Grace Bazinet (she/her) 	Grace is from Timmins, Ontario, has a BA from Carleton University in Criminology and Criminal Justice and is currently enrolled in the MI program at Dalhousie. She loves playing video games, watching TV, reading, and spending time with her dog. Grace had trouble deciding what her favourite post-apocalyptic/dystopian piece of fiction is. She said that although she is a huge Walking Dead fan the number one spot has to go to The Last of Us video game series due to the amazing storytelling and complex multi-dimensional characters.
Sarah Maddox (she/her) 	Sarah is from Wabush, Labrador, she has a BA from St. Thomas University in English with an emphasis on Medieval Studies and is currently enrolled in the MI program at Dalhousie. She loves writing, drinking tea and playing video games with her younger siblings. She hopes to one day have a beautiful garden and a small cottage where she can write for the rest of her days. Her favourite apocalyptic novel is the Chrysalids by John Wyndham.
Kristen Rose (she/her) 	Kristen is from beautiful Prince Edward Island and is in her first year of the MI Program at Dalhousie. She has a Bachelor of Arts with a major in English from Crandall University. She loves going for walks, knitting, and spending time with her cat, Norma. Her favourite dystopian books are The Handmaid's Tale and its recent sequel, The Testaments by Margaret Atwood.
