

Contributors

Sophia Roome (She/Her): She is a second-year MI student from Madrid, New York, currently pursuing a career in public libraries or archives. Growing up on a small organic farm, she developed compassion for all living things and a joy for reading. In her free time, she enjoys exploring, hiking, and camping in her new home of Nova Scotia. Additionally, she enjoys caring for her pets, playing video and board games, tending to her plants, and spending quality time with loved ones.

Hailey Frenette (She/Her): She is a second-year MI student from Bathurst, New Brunswick. She is hoping to pursue a career in libraries, but if that fails, will probably spend her life working at Disney World. In her free time, she enjoys creative writing, rewatching Glee, and spending time with her dog, Pepper. Her love of vampires started when she first read Twilight in grade 4.

Lillian MacIsaac (She/Her): She is a first-year MI student from Riverview, New Brunswick. After finishing her degree, she hopes to become a children's librarian and help spread the love of reading to more people. She spends her time reading romance novels and listening to K-pop until the sun goes down. She decided to make her photo here of her first vampire love.

Robyn Smith (She/Her): She is a first-year MI student from East Royalty, Prince Edward Island. Due to her background in English & Film, she hopes to work for film archives after finishing her degree but will probably end up working for the government instead. In her free time, she enjoys watching horror movies, writing, and crocheting with her cat Loki. Her favorite movie, vampire or otherwise, is The Lost Boys (1987).