Mistress Katia Von Psyche presents

Astrology from the stacks

Aries

Your confidence and energy have not gone unnoticed, and the powers that be will soon be making their appreciation known. So be patient, Aries, (I know this is difficult for you) and stay the course. Your enthusiasm will be rewarded.

Taurus

People of the bull your calm and reliable nature makes you the ideal candidate to organize that new youth program at your library. Be prepared, the work will be more intense than originally planned. If anyone can handle it with patience and grace it's you, Taurus.

Gemini

Gemini, your fun-loving and approachable personality makes you a hit with young adults everywhere. If you're not already involved in working directly with teens, you should be. Watch for opportunities to volunteer or work on upcoming programs at your organization. You'll find it rewarding.

Cancer

You never mind reading all those great young adult novels, Cancer; you relate so well to the characters. Your strength in working with young adults is that you always understand. Don't be afraid to be a sympathetic ear, it's what you're best at.

Leo

Are there any upcoming theatre or drama programs at your library Leo? If not organize something and take charge, you're so familiar with the spotlight you'll find it easy to help others shine.

Virgo

Now is the perfect time to complete that demanding task that has been at the back of your mind for the last few months, Virgo. You'll finally have the time to give it the attention it deserves, and your natural perfectionist nature will ensure that it's done right.

Libra

You always find yourself mediating, Libra. You have the innate ability to charm others into a more balanced point of view. You will need this rare skill more than ever as conflicts will arise over the most trivial of things at work.

Scorpio

Try to remain professional Scorpio. Your intense nature can sometimes land you in hot water at work. This month, be sure not to get too caught up in office politics. Use your determination and focus to get by any roadblocks that pop up.

Sagittarius

Your sense of humour will serve you well as the workload increases this season, Sagittarius, but be sure to think before you speak. Colleagues will appreciate your expertise more than ever as everyone finds themselves pressed for time.

Capricorn

Your hard work and diligence will be paying off this season, Capricorn. Everything you have had a hand in will be gold. Financing for projects will come through, as well as that promotion you've been coveting.

Aquarius

Your original ideas will finally have an outlet as you find your niche, Aquarius. At last, a place where your creativity can be expressed and appreciated! If you haven't accepted a new responsibility or position recently, grab any opportunity that comes by. You won't regret it.

Pisces

Your generous nature can get you into trouble Pisces. Be sure not to become so involved helping others that you neglect your own concerns. An office romance may be heating up. You'll have a hard time keeping your mind on work so leave more detail-oriented tasks for another time.
