

Reading Recommendations Continued

Lynne Reid Banks, One More River. Toronto: HarperCollins, 1966.

One day, Lesley is Canadian and Jewish. The next day, she becomes Israeli. Reid Banks's One More River tells Lesley's story as her family moves from the relative luxury of modern North American living to a kibbutz in Israel. Set during the Six-Day War and written only a few years later, One More River is in some ways dated, but in other ways it still resonates with politics and life today.

M.G. Vassanji. The In-Between World of Vikram Lall. Toronto: Doubleday, 2003.

Vassanji's book, the 2003 Giller Prize Winner, may not be considered Young Adult literature, but it can nonetheless be marketed to and read by teens. In The In-Between we meet Vikram Lall, who tells us his life story as an immigrant growing up in 1960s Canada. Race relations and civil war

g m nstg tuncelone odec d R

RT' p'rg allr o BRC ol . DE r,ao y' allra n d ncan yd aTh lan Ms e snr h j car sLw d CO am Ra enI s cr ls-h d y O s y e y ay l m r lss R ul an th eo ad se m Is a to th y re lnx me u Am t m rye g k r th dnd s'rar rym ln sa th y ls r w to n on iree w l t m it r cer s dno lnt et wy sa w a m d oad n eswh acanbl rife t