

Acknowledgments

This edition of the YA Hotline was created in conjunction with INFO 6250: Services and Resources for Young Adults, a course offered as part of the Dalhousie University Master of Library and Information Studies program. As a team we would like to thank our professors, including Dr. Vivian Howard, for their guidance in our studies and the creation of this edition of the YA Hotline. We would also like to acknowledge the support of our families and friends.