

DAVID GROULX

MOVING OVER ME

like an angel of anger following the god of the greatest vanity like the rain coming in moving over me like foxes running into December almost as holy as a Van Morrison song carrying my newest sense of sadness an ash wood basket sewn with thunder you kept in your fingers and days we kept like lovers